

Texture of igneous rocks

(see also under speed of cooling)

Matching texture and description

A I 3 min per sample

Students are given several samples and must match these with descriptions and modes of formation.

Textures of igneous rocks

A P 5 minutes per sample

Students are given a number of samples with different textures.

Concentrating just on the textures of the samples the students name the texture and how that texture was formed.