

THE HERDMAN SOCIETY IS SINCERELY GRATEFUL
FOR THE SPONSORSHIP FROM:

Liverpool Geological Society

HERDMAN CENTENARY SYMPOSIUM

THE PAST, PRESENT AND FUTURE OF GEOSCIENCES

17.02.2018

LOCATION:
CENTRAL TEACHING HUB
UoL BUILDING 221

THE PAST, PRESENT AND FUTURE OF GEOSCIENCES 2018
CENTENARY HERDMAN SYMPOSIUM PROGRAMME

Saturday 17th February

09:30 Arrival (Tea, coffee & soft drinks available)

10:00 Welcome: Kate Foster & Christopher Owen (Symposium secretaries), Jim Marshall (Staff representative), Charity Rose & Bradley Falous (President and Vice President)

10:05 Charlie Underwood- (Birkbeck) 'The whole tooth; sharks in the desert and lab.'

10:50 Coffee Break

11.20 Janine Kavanagh- (Liverpool) 'How to make a volcanic plumbing system.'

12:05 Joel Gill- (BGS/GFGD) 'Geoscience and Sustainable Development – Lessons from interdisciplinary work across three continents.'

13:00 Lunch Break

14:00 Leanne Cowie- (Oslo) 'Continental Rifting (An Overview).'

14:45 Coffee Break

15:15 Paula Carey- (Carbon8) 'Carbon Capture and Utilisation: The contribution of Carbon dioxide mineralisation to climate change mitigation.'

16:00 John Walsh- (Dublin) – 'The longevity of geological structures - it's hard to keep a good fault down.'

16:45 Wine reception (Wine and soft drinks available)